To Whom It May Concern:

This is a letter to highly recommend the services of Chef Kfir Ben Ari. Kfir worked for me and my family from April 2021 until October 15, 2021. Originally, Kfir was coming to work the summer thru Labor Day at our home in the Hamptons, but we enjoyed his cooking so much we extended our time with him for another month.

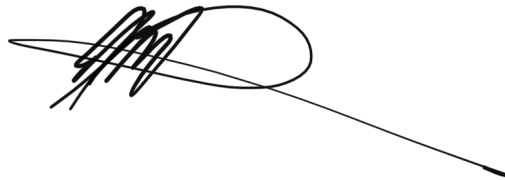

Kfir is an exceptionally talented and creative chef. Our home is quite busy in the summers, with four young adult children and their friends coming in and out for lunch or dinner as well as my wife's and my friends coming over for lunch or dinner as well. Kfir's food was always of superb quality and he was able to provide such high quality while also being flexible in terms of numbers of people. In addition, Kfir was always able to manage his budget and stayed within the boundaries we had agreed.

While both my wife and I care deeply about the food we eat, neither of us like to suggest menus with regularity. This was no problem for Kfir, who always came up with his own menus which were both delicious and varied. Our routine was to have an appetizer and main course at lunch and dinner, with a dessert at dinner. It is important to note that Kfir's desserts were every bit as delicious as his food. In addition, Kfir would regularly bake bread to serve at dinner.

I am an avid wine collector, and I did not utilize Kfir's skills as a sommelier, but in discussing wine with him, it was clear Kfir is tremendously knowledgeable and passionate about wine as well. He would happily source and serve wines he thought would go best with his menus if he were tasked to do so.

If you are looking for a chef of exceptional skill, passion and creativity, it is unlikely you will find anyone better than Kfir Ben Ari. Kfir speaks English, French, Spanish and Hebrew fluently, which was very helpful with our mostly Spanish speaking staff. I highly recommend Kfir. His presence in your home will elevate your table and deepen your enjoyment of meals, I have no doubt.

Sincerely,
